

NOTICIAS

Source: Cinco Días

Date: 09th November of 2010

The connections between different kinds of transport are not running.

Intermodal. This is the keyword for the logistics sector in Spain, that is, the different connections between road, sea, rail and air transportation. The status of this issue in Spain is far from the level in other surrounding countries, according to various industry experts consulted.