

NOTICIAS

Source: Expansión

Date: 04th November of 2010

Waves break with the crisis.

This time the sprouts are blue. The Spanish ports say goodbye to losses after two years in free fall. In the first nine months of 2010, the port traffic expanded by 3% chaining eleven positive months, according to data from the Ministry of Development. In total, more than 315 million tons passed through one of the 46 Spanish ports between January and September this year.