

NOTICIAS

Source: Europa Press

Date: 19th May of 2011

Brussels calls for Spain to abolish age requirement to allow trucks to transport

On Thursday, the European Commission demanded to Spain to change its rules on permits to transport goods by Truck. In particular, Brussels wants to remove the requirement that a heavy vehicle truck cannot be older than five months after their initial registration because it is contrary to the free movement of goods.