

NOTICIAS

Source: La Gaceta

Date: 20th September of 2010

China and the environment, future challenges in the logistics sector.

If there is something to be agreed for all logistics professionals is that their long-term efforts have to be oriented towards Asia, specifically China, the future economic power which has already overtaken Japan as the world's second largest economy.