

NOTICIAS

Source: Diario del Puerto

Date: 25th June of 2010

Lógica denounces the increasing unfair competition in pricing.

The Spanish Organisation of Logistics Operators (Lógica) has issued a statement insisting on the need to avoid unfair competition with respect to set prices for services contracted by the client. Lógica claims that "this price war, which has been practiced for some time, is more present than ever due to the current economic climate."