

NOTICIAS

Source: Expansión

Date: 27th October of 2010

Pulse between shipping companies and ports because of the charges.

The State Budget Act of 2011 started a war of numbers between shipping companies and port authorities. The business sector, represented by the employers ANAVE, has calculated that most of the Spanish ports of the Ministry of Public Works has agreed a rate upgrade (ship, cargo and passengers) up to 30% at the time when the maritime transport in Spain is suffering setbacks.