The general cargo port traffic touches the historical results prior to the crisis

The traffics of general merchandise in the Spanish ports grazed during the first half of the year the good results achieved before the economic crisis, so they moved a total of 99,108,473 tons and grew by 5.88% compared to first six months of 2010. Some data, as confirmed by the State Ports Public Authority (OPPE), represent the third best record in this type of traffic throughout the port story.
