

NOTICIAS

Source: Logística Profesional

Date: 20th January of 2011

Spanish ports move more than 391 million tons between January and November 2010

With a total of 391.7 million tons between January and November 2010, the Spanish ports traffic has increased an average of 3.8%, according to provisional data published by the government. Thus, all ports traffic has evolved positively over the last thirteen months (since October 2009 the yearly minimum was recorded with 413.5 million tons), which has allowed in computing the current year will reach 427 6 million tons of cargo.