

NOTICIAS

Source: Logística Profesional
Date: 10 de noviembre de 2011

The sector demands to inspect the transport by rail just as is done with the transport by road.

The National Road Transport Committee has demanded to the Administration that the inspection work carried out on the road freight transportation would also be applied to rail freight transportation. The position comes after finding "unfair competition that are been conducted by the Spanish railway companies, using outdated equipment or transporting certain kind of goods that don't comply with the same requirements to transportation companies."